REVENUE SECRETARIAT

Passes orders removing the disqualification in respect of Presidents and Vice-Presidents under detention for political offences.

ORDER NO. L.B. 170-87—L.B. 25-47-40, BANGALORE, DATED 7TH JULY 1948.

Under Section 22 (1) of the Mysore District Boards Act, 1926, as amended from time to time, a President of a District Board who, for a period exceeding three months, and a President who for a period exceeding one month, absents self from his duties shall cease to be the Presider Vice-President as the case may be, unless leave to absent has been granted by competent authority.

2. Instances have come to the notice of Goverr where Presidents or Vice-Presidents of District Boards been kept under detention for political reasons for p exceeding the limits referred to in the above section ent cessation of office. Government observe that the "absents himself" may be interpreted as absents o voluntarily and that a strict interpretation of the "absents himself" as including both voluntary and inv tary absence leads to injustice especially in cases of compu detention under the Public Security Act.

3. Government therefore consider that the expre "absents himself" occurring in the said section shoul be construed to apply to cases of involuntary absen Presidents and Vice-Presidents kept under detentio political reasons and direct that the Presidents and Presidents who, by reason of their detention on po grounds, could not attend the office or the District meetings as required by law do not by that reason onl their office and they continue to hold such office.
